THE ORIENTATIONS OF BROTHER DONG, TO BE PUT IN EFFECT NOW, THROUGH HIS SON ANDRE:

Pass it to the faithful brothers. This is what brother Dong sees.

I. Travel to the south to visit the churches. We need to let the churches know that the ones from Laodicea left the position of Philadelphia. They were the ones that left.

Although they expel them from the meeting hall, they are the ones who have left, because the church is not a physical meeting hall but spiritual.

For instance, there were 50 saints in the church in Diadema, Brasil. One day the leaders were affected and without consulting the church decided unilaterally to follow what they call "the ministry of the age" separating themselves from brother Dong's ministry. Twenty five brothers didn't agree with the decision. They continue going to the prayer meetings, ministry meetings, but they didn't have any enjoyment; they were just suffering. The positive brothers wanted to continue to meet because of the meeting hall, but the rebellious leaders changed the lock. What did the positive brothers do then? They simply met somewhere else. This doesn't mean that the positive saints left, because they remained along the same line of Philadelphia.

We told them: You didn't leave. You should continue breaking the bread, even if the rebels continue to do it at the same time. That's their problem with the Lord. The meeting hall matter is a matter of a physical building and not a spiritual one.

II. We need to inoculate the saints who are confused.

Many saints are waiting for brother Dong to say something and he already has—emphatically and clearly.

We need to recover and heal those who are both confused and damaged. And we should stay away from those who are decisively in Laodicea; don't have contact with them.

III. We need to clearly identify the positive, reliable brothers in the churches as contact brothers with their names, address, telephone, cell phone, email, etc., as complete as possible... Time will tell us who will be the coworkers according to the manifested growth in life in them.
